Collapse of the Casino at Atlantic

City.
The social session tendered by Atlantic City Lodge to the visiting Elks at the Baltic Avenue Casino, Atlantic City, last night ended in a disaster, in which fully 100 persons were more or less seriously injured. The session had just opened and only one of the speakers had been heard, when the building, which has not been used for several years, collapsed and fully a thousand persons were thrown to the floor beneath. Many women, the wives of the visiting Elks, went down in the ruins. Fully 200 persons, who were on the first floor of the building and immediately beneath the banquet hall, were crushed beneath timbers and lay helpless. The fact that all the electric lights in the building went out at the time the building gave way added to the terrible situation.

Firemen Called Out. A double alarm for the fire department was at once turned in, and the city's entire force of 200 firemen and every police officer in the city were called to the scene as a hospital corps.

The police ambulances and carriages of every description were utilized to convey the injured to the city hospital and to their Rescuing the Injured. Within a few minutes the police succeeded in clearing the space in the immediate neighborhood, and stretched ropes around to keep the crowd back. In the meantime the firemen had set to work to extricate the wounded from beneath the mass of timbers, and they were aided in their work by the hotelkeepers and residents near the scene. Every house was thrown open for the reception of the injured, and every available conveyance was pressed into service to carry them to their hotels.

No members of the Washington Lodge of Elks or any of their relatives or friends were hurt in the Casino catastrophe.

A Farewell Meeting. Last evening the Aldine Literary Society held a farewell meeting at the home of Mr. Reizenstein, in honor of Mr. M. ## FIRST SERIES ENDED

Departmental League to Begin a Supplemental Schedule.

HOW THE CLUBS STAND

Playing Snappy Ball for the First

THE COMING GAMES

Departmental League schedule was played yesterday, and a supplementary schedule of nine games begins today. The second series will begin July 24, and it is thought that by the time it goes into operation some radical changes may be effected by the managers of the league. The supplementary schedule was agreed upon at a meeting of the clubs held Tuesday night, so that games which had been postponed on account of rain might have a chance to be played off. This may cause quite a change in the standing of the clubs by the time the second series goes into effect, but it is the general opinion that the nine clubs composing the league are divided into three classes, in each of which are three clubs. The B. E. and P., District Com. and W. L. I. C. form the first division. It is generally acknowledged that the fight is between these three clubs, and a close finish is predicted by those who a close finish is predicted by those who have been watching the playing of each team closely. The Pension Office, Army and Navy and Treasury Department seem to be grouped around in the middle class, with the chances in favor of the Pension Office coming out at the top of the class. The other three clubs are hopeless tailenders, and unless some radical changes are made will continue tailenders until the end of the season.

made will continue tallenders until the end of the season.

All of the clubs except the Army and Navy and the Light Infantry have two games to play in this supplementary schedule of postponed games, while the Treasury bepartment and Post Office Department have three each. Should the Treasury team take a spurt—and in the last game in which it took part it put up an excellent game—it would take a good place among the leaders. With the W. L. I. C. and District in their present condition, however, it is not likely that the position of the first three clubs in the league standing will be changed. It is understood that the District Commissioners have greatly strengthened their team and are now confident of making a strong bid for the flag, notwithstanding their lost game with the Bureau. The schedule is as follows:

July 11—District vs. City Post Office.

July 12—Army and Navy vs. Government Printing Office.

Printing Office.

July 13-Treasury vs. Post Office Depart-July 15-District vs. Post Office Department. July 16-Treasury vs. Government Printirg Office.

July 18-City Post Office vs. Post Office Department, July 19-Treasury vs. Bureau of Engrav July 29—Pension Office vs. Washington Light Infantry.
July 22—Bureau of Engraving and Print-ing vs. Pension Office.

Proposed Consolidation.

There was another matter of great interest to the managers and officers of the league, which came in at the meeting Wednesday night. This was the proposition to consolidate several of the weaker clubs and reduce the number of teams in the league to seven in the opinion of many, this would be an excellent plan, as it would piace all the clubs on a more equal footing in the metter of playing abilities and would insure much more interesting exhibitions that are the rule at some of the games under the present make-up of the league. The matter received the approval of several of the members of the executive committee and it was decided to settle the question at the text meeting of the league.

There are not a few friends and admirers of the Washington Light Infantry team that have secret hopes of seeing that club very near the top at the close of the season. Conservative estimates are placing them second under any circumstances, while a few of the more enthusiastic ones are considered that their favorites will finare considered that their favorites will finare considered. while a few of the more enthusiastic ones are consident that their favorites will finish the schedule at the very top of the heap. To do this, however, the soldier boys will have to play the game of their lives. The Bureau is not going to let the prize slip away from them if for any reason they can put a stop to the proceedings. The District Commissioners, too, have taken on new life and are just as confident now as they were before their game with the Bureau that they will win the pennant. the pennant.

The Bureau team by winning yesterday, however, has a firm hold on first place through the supplementary schedule. The two teams which are pushing them are not scheduled to play enough games in order to give them a chance to catch up before the beginning of the second series.

The second series should one with a The second series should open with a good crowd at the park. It begins on the 24th, and there is every indication of some spirited contests before the end of the season. This will be especially true if the proposed consolidation of some of the clubs takes place. At any rate, nearly all the games between the six leading clubs clubs takes place. At any rate, nearly all the games between the six leading clubs have been fairly good exhibitions, while those between the first three or four have been exceedingly interesting and lively. The supplementary schedule may bunch all of the clubs now occupying the middle portion of the league standing and the second series could not start at a better time than if this be the case.

Notes of the Players.

Mills shows almost as much reversal of form as one of the horses at the Alexander Island track does. One day he is as wild as a March hare, and on another occasion will go in and strike out twelve men, and cnly allow a few hits to be made off his delivery.

Winkleman is hitting the ball hard and often. He makes a home run or a triple in almost every game, and sometimes two or three of them. His batting streak is coming just about the right time, too, for the ing just about the right time, too, for the Infantry boys are just beginning to take an interest in the pennant.

The W. L. I. C. team, the spectators think, should rot change its infield, but should play the same men in the same positions as much as possible. The infield that took part in the Fourth of July game but up a model contest, and there seemed positions as much as possible. The infield that took part in the Fourth of July game put up a model contest, and there seemed to be no reason for a change. Wise, Wisner and Winkle, the three W's, with Stewart at the initial bag, are a veritable stone wall.

Gilroy is a hard working member of any ball team which is lucky enough to possess him. He is a rattling good back stop, a good pitcher, and a steady infielder. His leating is away above the average, too.

There is no doubt in the world as to the Burcau's ability to play ball. Their infield work is perfect, and all are batters from the word go. With Bernard and Orspada to hold up the pitching department, there is no reason in the world why the Burcau should not come out at the head of the procession with not a single lost game.

If every one on the Post Office Department team had worked as hard as McWhorter in yesterday's game, the result would have been different. Brown and Jaquette did try to back him up in some kind of style, but the partons of the games do not pay to go to the park and see a man walk sixty feet, and after throwing the ball walk back to fits position again.

MAIL HANDLERS SNOWED UNDER.

MAIL HANDLERS SNOWED UNDER. They Could Not Hit and Their Field-ing Was of the Yellow Hue.

The Post Office Department was snowed under again yesterday, and this time by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. The exhibition was almost as bad as the game on the Fourth, when the Infantry beat them 27 to 0, but on that day they did manage to get four hits, although they made eighteen errors. Joe Bernard let them down yesterday with only two hits in the whole nine innings, and, beside that, struck out fourteen men. They helped him, with fourteen errors. His support was faultless, and the way in which the money makers handled the stick was a caution. Only one error was made by the Bureau boys, and their fair friends in the grand stand were loud in their expressions of approval. Leach and Farrell led at the bat, and the infield was like a stone wall to the aspirations of the P. O. D. boys. The mail clerks put up their usual style of ball playing, the only two men was were able to keep their heads at all being Brown at second base and Jaquette in left field. The latter made a couple of fine catches and stopped everything on the ground that came his way. Brown relieved McWhorter in the eighth inning, and it is thought that if he had been put in sooner the result might have been changed, although the P. O. D.'s could not hope to win at any stage of the game. Mr. Hazen umpired a good game, although slightly off on balls and strikes. The score:

GOOD ADVICE FOR ALL.

"Play Ball," Says Nick Young When Abused About the Umpire. The Baltimore base ball team is said to have sent the following dispatch to President N. E. Young, after its defeat by St.

"Send us the worst umpire you have to Chicago. We were robbed in New York and St. Louis. While you are doing us, do us good and strong."

President Young said, when seen in regard to the telegram: "The Baltimore team is too great and too strong to resort to such childish methods. Mr. Jevne is as good an umpire as there is in the business, and I have not had a single complaint other than that of the Baltimore players concerning his work. Mr. Hanlon has made no protest, and the only unfavorable criticism of him comes from the Baltimore players.

"I do not believe that the Baltimore team has any reason to kick at the treatment it has received. The team is a great one, but it must play ball to win games, and should not try to blame their defeats upon umpires to whom no one else objects."

LARNED WINS IN CANADA.

Opening the Queen's Royal Tennis Tournament. A brilliant gathering filled the grounds of the queen's royal at Niagara, Ont., yesterday, to see the continuation of the tennis championship tournament, in which a large number of American cracks are entered. The interest of the day centered in the match between W. A. Larned, champion of the middle states, and Fritz Ward of Rochester. Larned played his usual tactics, driving to his opponents back hand until a weak return gave him an oppor-tunity of killing the ball at the net with one of his vicious cross-court smashes. Ward on the other hand, put up an unsually aggressive game, placing his oppo-nent's hard drives with great skill, and hammering down the side lines for steady
